(SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE BECORD-UNION. THE COAST ROAD.

Interview With a Leading Railroad Official on the Subject. San Francisco, July 6th.—Among well informed officials at Fourth and Townsend streets, the belief in Huntington's refusal to build the coast road is well nigh universal. A high official of the Southern Pacific Company, in answer to a question concerning the closing of the gap between Santa Margarita and Ellwood, to-day said: "Why, of course the road will be built. That was decided by Mr. Huntington some time ago. It is on the books, and if the Southern Pacific Company shell carried." Southern Pacific Company shall continue to build and operate railroads there can be

"Will the matter be expedited or in any way influenced by the action of the Con-vention which recently met at San Jose?" "I do not believe the action of this meeting or any other meeting which may be held in the future for a similar purpose, will have any effect of hurrying the con-struction of the road in question. When Mr. Huntington is convinced that the venture will be a success financially, then, and not until then, will this road be built." "If the conditions of Cooper's contract are carried out, would not the financial uccess of the scheme be an assured fact? In other words, would not the Southern Pacific Company be amply secured and insured against loss?" "No; the sum of $315,000 has been offered the company, together with depot facilities and rights of way. This seems to a person on the outside as a very large sum of money—a magnificent gift. But how does it compare with the cost of construction, Tennis Championship. which is estimated at $5,000,000? the amount was twice that offered, I do no believe Mr. Huntington would accept it. He has often expressed himself as opposed to accepting subsidies. That is not railoading, and is sure to entangle the company receiving the subsidy in an endless controversy and difficulty. If the people contribute one dollar toward the construction of a road, they think they own it, and are always interfering in its operation.

Measures Which They will Probably Discuss This Week. WASHINGTON, July 6th .- Frye's shipping bills are the unfinished business of the Senate calendar for to morrow, and he hopes to have them disposed of without further delay. He will then ask to have the river and harbor bill taken up. This bill, with the amendment which the Comnittee on Commerce has authorized Frye to offer, carries an appropriation of about $26,000,000, and he says it is the best bill of the kind ever prepared. Morrill, Chairman of the Finance Com mittee, will endeavor to have the tariff bill made the order of business after the shipping bills are out of the way. The tariff bill, it is understood, will be in charge of Senator Aldrich. If the river and harbor bill gets the right of way it is then more than probable that the tariff debate will not be begun in earnest until next week, as there are three appropriation bills to come before the Senate this week, one of which, the sundry civil, is likely to precipitate a debate of some length. Among its provisions as it passed the House is an approprition of $720,000 for geological and irrigation surveys, to be ex-pended under the direction of Director Powell, and this will be antagonized by Stewart and possibly by other Western Senators, who want the irrigation survey to be conducted by the Agricultural De-partment. The other two appropriation bills are the Indian and Consular and diplomatic.

The report of the Conference Committee on the silver bill, which is a privileged matter, is likely to be presented before the close of the week, and it will probably give rise to a debate of some length. A caucus of Republican Senators is ex-pected this week to decide whether or not o take up the election bill, which will probably be received from the House to-morrow, at this session.

The proceedings in the House promise to be comparatively uninteresting. Proba-bly the general deficiency bill, the last of he appropriation bills, will be acted upon before the week is ended. The Election Committee is desirous of securing consideration for two contested election cases (Miller vs. Elliott of South Carolina and Langton vs. Venable of Virginia), which have been for some time on the calendar. The friends of the bankruptcy bill also expect to be able to get that measure be-

Honest conviction commands respect everywhere and the Prohibition candidate has convictions of duty and honor which all must admire. Prohibition tickets succeed best when strong elements of political control want to beat the Republican party. Such was the force behind the candidacy of Dr. McDonald. Besides there was money in the Doctor's fight. But that was also a Democratic year. This is a Republican year and the Prohibition candidacy of General Bidwell may spread a feeble smile over the general features of politics, such as wind colic is wont to do over the face of sleeping infancy.

THE committee in charge of the fireworks at San Francisco on "The Fourth" deserves an enormous medal of base metal. It had the insufferable bad taste to have the pyrotechnicists put up a huge design of Sullivan and Kiirain fighting. The men who perpetrated this insult to the day and the people should be named and held up to public odium. That was not the only bad feature of the day at the metropolis. What the slave song, "The Old Folks at Home," had to do with a celebration commemorative of the birth of liberty in America, and why the overture to "William Tell" should have engaged the chief attention of the orchestra in a Fourth of July celebration, we are at a loss to understand. The orator of the day, while saying some things that are true and many that were untrue, mistook the occasion and uttered as lugubrious a speech, one as full of sad prophecies and long recitations of political ills that are supposed to afflict us, and social evils and defects in legislation, as it is possible to fancy. It is a curious fact, Mr. Editor (but a fact, nevertheless), that the average woman is a nevertheless), that the average woman is a conundrum. You may call her your sweet, brave little darling—that is, if she is not some other fellow's wife or darling—but there was not a quorum present and the yield is not good.

There was to have been a meeting of the last week's hail-storm is not so bad as at first reported. Harvesting has begun and the yield is not good.

couldn't persuade her to "come off the perch" until I had taken a cast-iron swear that there was no mouse in the room. But the one hundredth woman has been found—the one who is not afraid of an innocent little mouse; that woman is my mother-in-law.

The mother-in-law, you know, is a muchabused person, and at divers times very justly so. She is stigmatized as a shedevil-on-wheels, a catamanan, a termagant, and what not; but there would be rathersilim work for the census enumerators were into troop for the mother-in-law. She may just drop in to visit you for a day, and stay a month, but during that time she will darn all of your old socks, give you a few gentle hints about staying home evenings to get acquainted with your family, lecture you mildly about the duties of a nusband and father, et cetera; but withal she in an institution. While visiting us recently my were in the kitchen, and with a scream like a Comanche squaw, my wife gathered up the reskirts and jumped on top of the dining room table, and begged her mother to do likewise. But not so the mother. She, brave old soul, got the poker and went gunning for the rodent. A rively go-as-you-please match was the result, till finally the mouse disappeared. It was at once surmised by my wife that the mouse had sought seclusion in her rible, dreaded result had happened—that the mouse had sought seclusion in her mother's skirts--and such proved to be the case.

"Mother," she screamed. "Where is it?"

"Mother," she screamed. "Where is it? is it in your dress, or in your skirt, or your—your—or where is it? Ob, it will scratch you!-it will bite you!-where is it,

Next to the mouse the festive flea is the bane of a woman's life. The flea is a very small animal, but he gets there with both feet. The great trouble with a flea is, that He is a very playful little cuss, and is always dodging around some corner to avoid you. You can't take a piece of stale cheese and capture him, like you can a mouse. Not much; it takes diplomacy to capture a flea, together with wet fingers and diligence of the most diligent kind.

When you see a woman in church begin to wriggle and twist about in her seat, your soul should go out in sympathy for her. If she looks as though she were about to faint, then your soul should go out in more sympathy. She won't faint, however, for pretty soon the flea will make a change of base, and she has relief for a few moments. Pretty soon, however, the flea begins to thirst for more worlds to conquer, and begins maneuvering for a deadly assault. Now, for instance, could anyone be called brave who would climb a tree from a mouse? But it is a well-known fact, handed down by our ancestors, that ninety-nine women out of every one hundred will run from a mouse. Now, not any longer ago than last night I, in a playful mood, yelled "Rats!" and with a scream of fright my wife gathered her skirts in a bunch and jumped upon the nearest chair, and I couldn't persuade her to "come off the perch" until I had taken a cast-iron swear that there was no mouse in the room. "A GROWL."

Mr. EDITOR: Although my taxes are I feel that I have a right to criticise those extravagances that are factors in the creation of high taxes. I have in my mind the county hospital. No sooner does the impecunious citizen become broken down and debilitated, than he rushes off to the hospital. Even persistent dyspepsia and constipation are getting to be excuses for admission Hence, allow me space to enter my feeble protest against further continuance of this pernicious practice. It costs too many hard dollars for the treatment of these unfortunates, and it is high time that they should know that they can save the county that expense, by the judicious use of a few bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, - a remedy that within my observation is a sovereign cure for those too common disorders. If they won't take it they ought to be compelled to by some law that would meet the case. Under the circumstances a full hospital is inexcusable, - hence this growl.

There is a saloonkeeper in Utica, Neb. who must be a pretty square man, as saloonkeepers go. He inserts the following advertisement in the local papers: "To whom it may concern: Know ye that by the payment of $1,527 40, I am permitted to retail intoxicating liquors at my saloon in this city. To the wife who has a drunkard for a husband, or a friend who is unfortutately dissipated, I say, emphatically, "Give me a notice of such cases in which you are interested, and all such will be excluded from my place. Let mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, uncles and aunts do likewise, and their requests will be regarded."

BUT THE SENATORS' FINE FIELDING

ento succeeds in Holding the Lead in the Pennant Race-A Great Slugging Contest.

WON THE GAME.

San Francisco, July 6th .- The game today was a slugging contest, there being two triples, ten doubles and thirty singles made by the two clubs. The Sacramentans did the greater part of their hitting when two men were out, and as the Oakland's errors cropped up at the same time, only one of the Senators' runs was earned.

Hoffman was hit in lively style, but the fine fielding of the Senators kept runs down. Reitz played another great game, his work being perfect after the first inning. Daly was out of sorts at short. The fielding of Oakland was a trifle off.

THE UMPIRE MOBBED.

The Stockton Diamond the Scene of a Disgraceful Row. STOCKTON, July 6th .- George Z. Coughlan, of San Jose, who represented the syndicate that negotiated for the purchase of the Stockton Club, umpired the game between the Stocktons and San Franciscos to-day. In the eighth inning Coughlan allowed Levy to score on a foul ball that went by the catcher, and decided Selna out at the plate on a home-run hit beyond the the house on fire, which was not over

WHAT THE SACRAMENTO MANAGERS SAY. A RECORD-UNION reporter called on Manager Ginsberg last evening and asked him what he had to say concerning the controversy over Coughlin.
"He belongs to us," said Mr. Ginsberg,

'and our dispatches will so show.' He then brought out a package of telegrams and showed them to the reporter.

"On the 23d of June," said he, "we learned that Coughlin had been released by the Chicagos, and we telegraphed to him, in care of Spalding Bros., asking whether he had been released. whether he had been released, and what were his terms. This was the first dis-patch sent. A few days afterward Coughling telegraphed, stating his terms, and re-marking also that he could bring a good catcher named Lauer with him. Immediately upon the receipt of this dispatch we wired him: "Terms accepted and advance money sent to you by Southern Pacific Company by wire. Their agent will give you the same. Don't de-lay. Come at once.

"A couple of days afterward the following puzzler was received here by wire: "Do you want catcher Lauer for $175, as wired? Accept both or none. Must know to-

"This dispatch was a genuine surprise to the managers, and they concluded that Coughlin wanted to back out and go to San Francisco. They were not to be baffled, however, and sent the following sharp telegram to Coughlin:

"We refer you to your first telegram. It don't say in your terms that you must have Lauer with you. We have two fine catchers. Will talk to you about Lauer when you get here. Come at once. You belong to us." Mr. Ginsberg says he will 'have Cough-lin, and that in all probability he will ap-pear in a Sacramento uniform in the game here July 13th.

MUD VS. WATER.

Property Owner Who Imagines Tha the Latter is Preferable. EDS. RECORD-UNION: Citizens and Taxpayers of Sacramento: What course shall we take to protect our property from fire in this city? We are without proper protection by the negligence of those that we have elected to look after the protection of our property from fire. After reaching the place the child asked and was given permission to ride alone farther down the road, with the parental caution not to go near the water. A little later he was handed to his father in a thoroughly soaked condition by a stalwart fisherman, who had picked the boy out of the river. It seems that he had dismounted, tied up his pony, and ventured to the river bank, from which he fell into the stream where the water was about twelve feet deep.

the matter. It is very evident from the above report that the coocern is not in shape fluancially to do a very extensive business, but, of course, rival and unscrupulous dealers will make all they can out of it, in the hope of putting something else forward. It is only another of those desperate sttempts to make capital off from the name and reputation the Mathushek Piano has gained. As a matter of fact, it is really gratifying to see how much the name is appreciated, and that it is considered so valuable that previous failures don't seem to dampen the ardor of the projectors. We are confident in the belief, however, from the financial standing of the new concern, that no longer lease of life will be accorded them than was granted their predecessors. The Mathushek Piano is pretty well installed, and we hardly think the public will be beguiled into buying a piano made by Jacobs cros. for a Mathushek. A few may be influenced at first, but it will end like all the other attempts, in a first-class advertisement. Yours very respectfully, THE SADDLE ROCK Restaurant and Oyster House. I was wounded in the leg at the battle of Stone River, Dec. 31st, 1862. My blood was poisoned from the effects of the wound, and the leg swelled to double its natural size, and remained so for many years. The poison extended to my whole system, and I stiffered a thousand deaths. Nothing did me any good until I took Swift's Specific, which took the poison out of my system, and enabled me to feel myself a man again. S. S. S. is the remedy for blood poison.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

A GALA DAY. Opening Day of the German Federal

Rifle Meeting. Berlin, July 6th.—The German Federal rifle meeting was opened to day. A splendid procession, starting from Brandenburg, marched through the decorated streets to the shooting grounds. A herald carrying the Imperial banner led the procession.

The different hodies taking part in the The different bodies taking part in the parade were arranged in order according to their nationalities, the visiting American riflemen taking precedence over the other foreign organizations. A series of industrial groups followed, and after that came the riflemen, representing the develop-ments of the German shooting guilds since the thirteenth century and attired in costumes of the different periods. A number of pictorial cars closed the procession.

On reaching the town hall each section was greeted with a flourish of trumpets, and when all had arrived, Burgomaster Forckenbeck delivered an address of welcome. The paraders were given an ovation by the thousands of spectators that lined portations. Paris, July 6th.—The Senate has shown its hand plainly in regard to the American questions. After a long debate it voted in favor of a duty of three francs on corn and six francs on cornmeal. It was distinctly avowed that the duty on corn was to be considered only a continuation of the policy toward American pork. The Com-mittee de Cariel declared that the importation of American pork was only another mode of importing American corn and the French farmers could not maintain themselves against it. The prohibition of pork was right and ought to be maintained, and the duty on corn should also be made pro-hibitive.

Millaud called attention to the fact that American pork is prohibited on the ground of alleged unhealthfulness. He declared this merely a pretext.

An article published in Le Temps, thought to reflect the views of the Government, suggests that it might be desirable to withdraw prohibition against pork.

MARRIAGE A FAILURE. A Sensation in London Society Over

Divorce Suit. London, July 6th .- Viscountess Dunlo has caused a sensation for London's Four Hundred this week. Her busband, Viscount Dunlo, is suing for a divorce. The case was up for hearing before Justice Sir James Harmon this week. The Viscountess Dunlo is no less a personage than the fa-mous concert-hall singer, Bell Bilton "Dunlo." The Prince of Wales is reported to have remarked: "Dunlo is not a big-ger fool than he looks." Bell's life has been a lively one, and after she and Dunlo Francisco. The case will be tried the first week of August.

A STRIKE PROBABLE. Telegraph Operators Demand an In crease in Pay. London, July 6th.—The agitation among the telegraph operators for higher wages is ng serious proportions, and causing a great delay in the service. It is rumored that the British Government will apply to the American telegraph companies for a large force of operators, in case the dissatisfied men go on a strike. The employes are indignant over this proposed action, and will request the American craftsmen not to starvation wages. Several employes were discharged to-day for participating in indignation meetings. A wholesale strike is expected on Monday.

As Firenzi is also entered, it is probable that Haggin will rely on his matchless mare to carry his colors to vic-tory, unless handicapped. If they don't tory, unless handicapped. If they don't put a mountain on her back, Firenzi can beat any horse in training over that distance, and beat him easily at that.

CALLING A HALT.

Pension Expenditures Said To Be Growing Too High. New York, July 6th.—The Tribune, which has been conspicuous for many years in securing justice for the veterans of the army, will to-morrow call a halt in the army, will to-morrow call a half in the matter of pensions. It says: The measure of the proper expenditure for pen-sions has been reached, if, indeed, it has not been passed already. There is no active demand on the part of the veterans of the Union for sums exceeding those already appropriated, and those veter-ans are sensible enough to know that appropriations exceeding half the entire revenue of the Government to benefit a small fraction of people might quickly cause a collapse for lack of popular approval and support.

FOLSOM AND VICINITY. Accident to a Boy-Danish Colony for Orangevale. [Telegraph, July 5th.]

A rumor was prevalent the early part of the week that John Odom had been drowned in the Yuba river. Investigation has proven the report to be untrue. Since the American river has been going down our citizens have been enjoying a great deal of sport fishing. When the river goes down a couple of feet more the fishermen will do much better.

Most of the dairymen are gone to the mountains now. The snow has been going rapidly and the road through is passable. Those who went away first sent their stock up part of the way on the cars, but now the road is cleared and the stock is driven up to the summer ranges from the valleys. A great many bridges and grades were carried away and badly damaged during the past heavy winter, and great inconvenience has been the result of the damage.

A gentleman who was formerly a sea Captain was here last week looking for a tract of land on which he desired to locate twenty-four Danish families from Copenhagen. He was highly pleased with Fol-som and the natural advantages of the country around here. He also visited Orangevale, and was very favorably impressed with it and the condition of growing fruit trees there. He intended to open negotiation with the Orangevale managers look-ing to the purchase of enough lands to locate the families on. The Danes are inwere married he was sent by his family on a trip around the world. Meantime the suit for divorce was begun. Dunlo's some arrangement for their coming here will be made.

NICKEL-PLATED.

An English Company Opening a Mine of Nevada Nickel. It is reported that an English company has taken hold of the Bell property at Cot ton wood and intends to develop the nicke and cobalt mines extensively. Superintendent Charles Bell, formerly of Sacramento, and the President of the company from New York City, are now in San Francisco engaged in purchasing ma-chinery and supplies for a 25-ton smelter, which they will start on the ores as soon as possible. He thinks they will put on about forty men at work for the present, help the Government grind them down to and will increase the force as the work demands it. The company is also putting up a large boarding-house and have secured a Postoffice, which is called Nickel. The company pays up regularly every month, and if they secure the Government to furnish so much nickel monthly there will be lively times at Cottonwood this sum. mer. It is called the Nevada Nickel Mining Company. Last winter a very rich vein of nickel was struck, carrying a very high percentage of ore.-Austin Review.

Arranging Photographs. "What to do with one's photographs, says a writer in the Illustrated American "is the question that perplexes most wo-men nowadays, when of the making of photographs, both professional and ama-teur, there is no end."
